TRULY THE BEST VACATION OF YOUR LIFETIME

Millions of visitors before you have proclaimed the Canadian Rockies as the most scenic wonder of the world. Even world travelers who have visited the Alps in Switzerland have made this declaration. Surely when you combine the comforts and pleasure of traveling with Laughlin Tours with the wonders of the glorious Pacific Northwest and the Canadian Rockies, you will agree the combination affords you the best trip of your life.

BAGGAGE AND PASSENGER TRANSFERS

Until you have traveled the Laughlin Canadian Tour, you will have no idea how comfortable and enjoyable travel can be. Never any need to touch your baggage and it is always in your room or pullman space when needed. You walk off and on trains, boats, in and out of hotels, free from the burdensome arrangements of tickets, reservations and transfers. Special busses used throughout for our party.

YOU TRAVEL WITH EXPERIENCE

Hundreds of Fun Train-ers (passengers who have traveled with Laughlin on previous trips) have expressed their sentiments of the service and places selected to see as the best. They have used such phrases as, "It was tops in every phase," "Your choice of places to see and stay have been more than we expected," "Still running over with enthusiasm remembering the most enjoyable trip we have ever had." "Thank you for the many courtesies extended. I cannot enumerate them as there were so many." These are quotations from unsolicited letters on file in our office.

NO BORDER RED-TAPE

Your friendly and competent escort makes arrangements for your baggage through customs in both directions. He assists you and answers all questions regarding purchases made in Canada.

You'll Travel in Carefree Comfort

LITTLE HELPFUL HINTS BEFORE YOUR DEPARTURE

Dress should be comfortable and include one pair of low-heeled shoes. Knit dresses, suits and topcoats are ideal for women. Plastic shower capes are always advisable, but no need to bring rubbers. Baggage should be limited to one average sized suitcase. An extra sweater is also handy. . . . Men should bring sport shirts and slacks. One business suit would be sufficient. Top coats, as a rule, are not required by the men. . . . Check over your list for other items such as cameras, film and sufficient cigarettes for the entire trip.

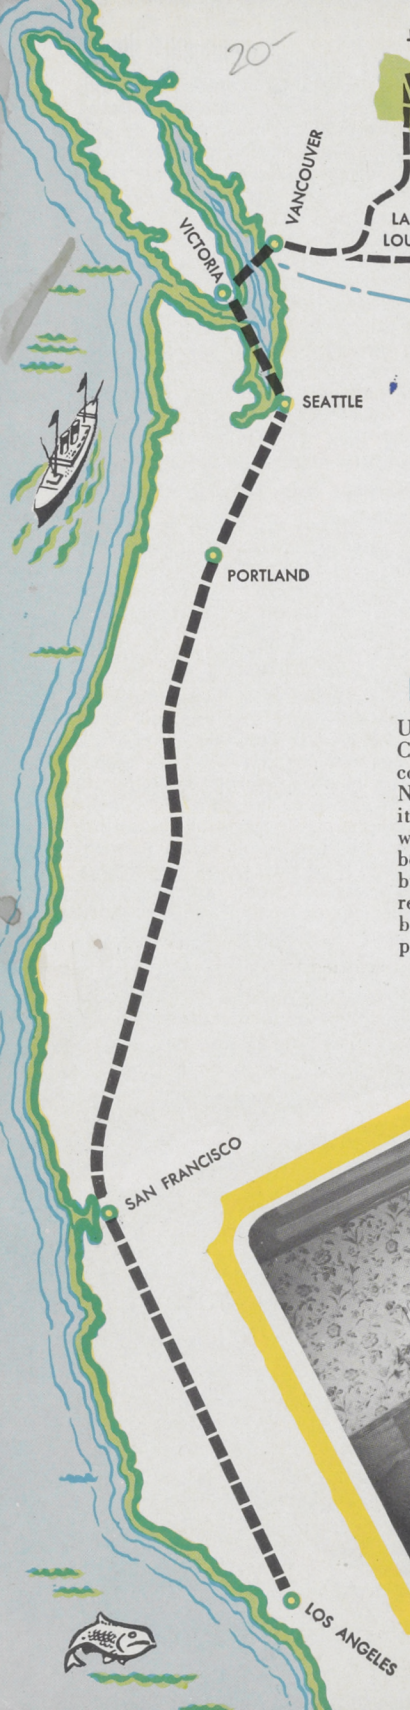

VANCOUVER HOTEL—VANCOUVER

ACCOMMODATIONS AT BEST HOTELS AND THE BEST SERVICE INCLUDED THROUGHOUT THE TRIP

A pleasant trip must be well planned and include the best accommodations for your comfort and pleasure. We use streamlined trains and only first class pullmans. The list of hotels included are the leading hotels on the coast and in Canada: Sir Francis Drake, San Francisco; The Empress, Victoria; Vancouver Hotel, Vancouver; Chateau, Lake Louise; Banff Springs Hotel, Banff; Jasper Park Lodge; the blue-book roster of hotels.

YOUR DAILY ITINERARY

CHOICE OF TWO ITINERARIES — A or B

Many passengers prefer more time in the Canadian Rockies and this may be accomplished on Itinerary 'B'—leaving Vancouver, after dinner at Vancouver Hotel, Wednesday evening via Canadian National, thus affording you two nights each—Jasper Park Lodge, Chateau Lake Louise, and Banff Springs Hotel versus Itinerary 'A' . . . two nights Jasper Park Lodge . . . one night Chateau Lake Louise . . . two nights Banff Springs Hotel. Fares (as shown on back page) are the same for both itineraries . . . joining and leaving at Los Angeles, San Francisco or Seattle.

FRIDAY—JASPER PARK

You awake in the midst of the beautiful Canadian Rockies . . . a view of Mt. Robson just before arrival . . . snow capped mountains . . . rushing streams . . . waterfalls. Soon the porter says 'Jasper next stop' . . . anticipation runs high . . . everyone anxious to see

SUNDAY—ALL ABOARD—LOS ANGELES

Vacation days are here again and we embark on the World's most scenic trip . . . planned in distinctive and de-luxe manner of Laughlin Tours. What a glorious happy-go-lucky feeling . . . no worries as to bothersome tickets, train connections, or reservations. Your baggage is handled from the time you meet your congenial and experienced escort at the main door of the Los Angeles Union Station (7:30 a.m. Daylight Time) until you leave the trip. Then soon it will be All Aboard . . . (8:15 a.m. DST) . . . Our Southern Pacific Streamlined Daylight starts on its way . . . up the palm lined Pacific Coast of California. Hungry! . . . breakfast is awaiting you in the beautiful diner . . . a nice way to start a fine trip . . . Fruit Juice . . . Muffins . . . Choice of Ham, Bacon or Sausage and Eggs . . . Hot Steaming Coffee, or many other items to select from. Many passengers will prefer to board the train at Glendale (8:30 a.m.), Santa Barbara (10:30 a.m.) and also San Luis Obispo. Lounge back in your comfortable reclining seats . . . as the scenery unfolds before you. Come alone or with your friends . . . it makes no difference as you will be pleasantly surprised at the nice class of people you will meet . . . people you will enjoy traveling with. San Francisco is announced . . . arrival 6:00 p.m. DST. Walk off the train like a regal party . . . no concern as to baggage . . . it will be taken directly to your room at San Francisco's nicest hotel . . . the Sir Francis Drake. Dinner is purposely not included this evening because of the many famous restaurants in the City of the Golden Gate.

MONDAY—DEPART SAN FRANCISCO

Our cousins from the Bay Area meet us this morning at the S. F. D. Hotel, (7:50 a.m. DST). Your escort has taken care of morning call and your baggage . . . transportation will be awaiting you in front of the hotel. You will look forward to the many new thrills . . . today you will ride on the new three million dollar Shasta Daylight . . . wide panoramic windows . . . feather touch doors . . . beautiful lounge car. Breakfast in the diner is the first business of the day . . . you will travel on your 'stomach' as the saying goes. From the fertile fields of California . . . the scenery gives way to the Cascade Mountains of Southern Oregon. The scenery is ever changing . . . as we head towards Portland. The tall evergreens . . . lakes . . . rivers . . . and majestic Mt. Shasta. This is the vacation you have dreamed of . . . but the scenery and comforts are not the only features . . . dinner tonight in the beautiful diner . . . Whatever it may be you will enjoy the delicious meals. Next stop is Portland . . . short stop as we transfer to our special air-conditioned pullmans for ride to Seattle.

TUESDAY—EMPRESS HOTEL—VICTORIA—BUTCHART'S GARDENS

On arrival in Seattle we board the beautiful new Princess boat of the Canadian Pacific Fleet . . . luxurious suite and parlor for your use. What a thrill . . . cruising the calm waters of Puget Sound . . . past the many scenic islands . . . Bremerton Navy Yard . . . breakfast in the beautiful dining room. At noon we arrive in Victoria. This garden city will remind you of a 'bit of England' . . . the stately Empress Hotel looms ahead as we drift into dock. Parliament building and grounds to the right . . . 'more London than Westminster itself' . . . Here you will find shops reminiscent of Old Bond Street and the 'Bobbies'. Special transportation will take you to the beautiful estates of Victoria . . . thence to Butchart's Gardens. Never have you seen such numerous and beautiful flowers and rock gardens. No item has been overlooked for your comfort and enjoyment . . . with overnight accommodations at the famous Empress Hotel. An entire 24 hours will be devoted to Victoria . . . plenty of time to take your time. The only hotel in the West serving tea and crumpets in the Lobby each afternoon . . . concert in the evening.

WEDNESDAY—VANCOUVER—STANLEY PARK

A restful night's sleep . . . a leisurely breakfast in the main dining room . . . more time for shopping . . . a stroll around the hotel and through the Rose Garden. We depart Victoria at 2:00 p.m. . . . again our beautiful suites on the Princess liner enroute to Vancouver. You will say "How luxurious can living be" as you look out over the rail. Our majestic ship will sail under Lion's Gate Bridge as you enter the harbor of Vancouver. Your experienced escort handled all your baggage through customs as well as your entry papers. This is one of the reasons why it is important to travel with an experienced company. Again special transportation will be awaiting you at the dock for transfer to the Vancouver Hotel. This evening we have a big treat . . . dinner in the main dining room of the Vancouver Hotel. Overnight at Vancouver Hotel for passengers confirmed on Tour A. Refer to block at top of this page for choice of itineraries A or B.

THURSDAY—VANCOUVER

Free time in Vancouver for shopping . . . a short drive to Stanley Park and Lookout Point enroute to depot. You will appreciate the leisurely manner of these arrangements . . . whether you choose Itinerary A or B. Both itineraries include the magnificent ride via the Canadian National Railways . . . the Northern Route to the Canadian Rockies . . . an exclusive feature of the Laughlin Tour . . . go one way and return via Canadian Pacific . . . the Southern Route.

MONDAY—BOW VALLEY—BANFF

An inspiring scene . . . Sunrise over Lake Louise . . . advise hotel operator if you wish a call. You say 'Why go farther' . . . but there are still more beautiful and interesting sights ahead. Our route takes us through the Bow Valley . . . rugged snow capped peaks on both sides . . . the Famous ten peaks to your right . . . Mt. Eisenhower to your left . . . our driver guide will explain the many items of interest . . . stop at Beaver Pond . . . Vermilion Lakes . . . Mt. Rundle . . . thence to Bow Falls and the stately and majestic Banff Springs Hotel.

TUESDAY—SHOPPING IN BANFF—BOW LAKE

The town of Banff . . . but a short interesting walk from the hotel. Banff offers a variety of shopping . . . the major stores of Canada have branches here. You should also visit the Administration Building with its lovely rock gardens on your way into town. Boat rentals are available on Bow Lake. There is an indoor and outdoor swimming pool, at the hotel . . . a championship golf course and tennis courts. Hiking is also a favorite sport.

WEDNESDAY—CANADIAN ROCKIES

Another free morning at Banff . . . how often, as the hours pass all too fleetly . . . you will wish you could hold them forever. You will carry away glowing memories of your wonderful vacation in the Canadian Rockies. Don't be saddened . . . our train takes us Westward thru more interesting scenery . . . the spiral tunnels hold great interest to all visitors. (East bound passengers also leave Banff this morning for their train connections.)

THURSDAY—PUGET SOUND

The early risers will see Fraser Canyon and the Fraser River. Breakfast in the diner before arrival in Vancouver. Time is allowed to shop in Vancouver this morning . . . depot is three blocks from center of town. You have more free time on a Laughlin Tour . . . one reason . . . no need to worry about baggage . . . transfers . . . or reservations. A day at 'Sea' today . . . we board the beautiful Princess Patricia . . . yes, the luxurious stateroom is again available to you. A stop is made at Victoria . . . afford you another opportunity to visit this quaint city. Other passengers will be standing in long lines for custom papers . . . but NOT you . . . your escort will secure your necessary papers. He will assist you in filling them out . . . YOU can spend your time in leisure. Another mealtime treat—dinner in the spotless and inviting dining room of the boat. What a sight as you see the lights of Seattle harbor. On arrival . . . escort will ask you to be comfortable in our suite . . . you will then be escorted to special custom room on dock for clearing baggage. How fortunate you will feel when you see the line up and waiting of other passengers. Through customs . . . that was quick and easy . . . short over night pullman ride. Passengers may choose to layover at Seattle or any other point enroute home . . . rail ticket is good for additional five days.

FRIDAY—SHASTA COUNTRY

A short stay in Portland as we board the sleek streamlined Shasta Daylight. Breakfast will be ready in the diner . . . you will notice that at NO TIME have we ever herded or grouped our guests . . . meals are all served at your leisure. All arrangements are made in a distinctive and individual manner . . . Laughlin Tours caters to passengers who wish the best in travel . . . they have the experience and know-how. No other tour operator can offer you these advantages . . . advantages not fully foreseen before starting your trip . . . but so important when on the trip. You will feel like Kings and Queens on this glorious Vacation. You had no worries regarding baggage . . . even the tips for all your baggage were handled by the escort. Reluctantly we bid good-byes to our many friends from the Bay Area as we arrive in San Francisco. But before . . . our farewell dinner this evening in the diner. Just a sample of good times awaiting you on the Special Train to the Mardi Gras in February. Home this evening again at San Francisco's best hotel . . . the Sir Francis Drake.

SATURDAY—HOMEWARD

A day of memories as we start with breakfast on the Streamlined Coast Daylight . . . passengers for Valley Cities may take the San Joaquin Daylight. Every party . . . the same as parties which preceded you . . . will come singing into the Glendale depot (5:40 p.m.) . . . thence Los Angeles station . . . 6:00 p.m. DST. Many plans will be made to see the congenial friends you have made on the trip. How do we know they will be happy and congenial? Because we say to one and all before reserving 'No sourpusses wanted' and 'If you can't smile—do not take a Laughlin Tour'. This vacation is important to you and it is our intention to make it the nicest vacation you ever had. Ask the thousands of people who have traveled with Laughlin in past years. The Laughlins planned this trip as carefully as they would a party in their own home. And in closing a wee bit of advice . . . Make your reservations now.

the lovely grounds of Jasper Park Lodge. All day is free at Jasper . . . to lounge on veranda . . . a dip in the heated pool . . . or for the more energetic . . . several optional motor trips are made available. Movies, entertainment, dancing this evening . . . truly a setting for romance to flourish.

SATURDAY—JASPER PARK LODGE

Another free day in the glorious surroundings of Jasper Park Lodge . . . a visit to Jasper is a 'must' for all visitors to the Canadian Rockies. A balanced itinerary includes sufficient free time . . . time to relax and enjoy to the fullest the richness of Mother Nature's blessings.

SUNDAY—ICEFIELDS—LAKE LOUISE

Departing Jasper . . . an awe inspiring sight entering Athabasca Valley . . . Mt. Edith Cavell to your right . . . Athabasca Falls then the Columbia Icefields . . . largest and most impressive body of ice outside the Arctic Circle. An hour and a half stop is made here . . . perhaps many of you would enjoy an optional trip on the Snow-Mobiles to the top of the Glacier. A stop is made at the quaint Alpine Chalet . . . thence southward stopping at Peyto Lake . . . a lake with three different colors at one time. This afternoon we arrive at Chateau Lake Louise . . . what a thrill to see lovely Lake Louise spread out before you. Our friends on Itinerary B will be waiting to greet you.
